Look to this day for
it is life, a time to make decisions —

What Class?

What Teacher?

What Club?

Where to live?

What to do with your time?

Where to go from here?

Oh, the decisions.
Places to go, things to do,
people to see.

A chance to make dreams come true. Time for relaxing and having a good time. Time for the seriousness of
college and its meaning.
A time for you and those around you.

In its brief course lie all the realities and truths of existence. The joy of growth, splendor of action, the glory of power.

Learning from the youth of yesterday the wisdom of today.
Being taught with their guidance to know ourselves and our goals. Perhaps we fail to realize what a school really is.

Classes are more than an experience
founded by the covers of a book.
Within them we can discover what kind of individual we are, or what we can be, or what we should be.

These realizations may be surprising, or frightening, or reassuring. In any case we have learned.

Look to this day, for yesterday is but a memory and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Dedicated in Appreciation of ANNA BEE

Dedicated is the best word to describe a woman who has given twenty-five years of her life to Hinds, students, faculty, and many others. Being involved has been a part of her life for many years. We would like to show our appreciation for a job well done through this honor. We the members of the Eagle Staff proudly and sincerely dedicate the 1977 yearbook to Anna Bee, Director of the internationally famous Hinds Hi-Steppers.

Write legibly.

Just wait till I catch that Refrigerator.

You cold lock? No chain.

Listen turkey don't call me a big bird.

I sent him to the store for CORROT and look . . .

These faculty parties get better every year . . . Hiccup

BIG MAC ATTACK . . .

Ever eat a snowball? Many parts are edible.

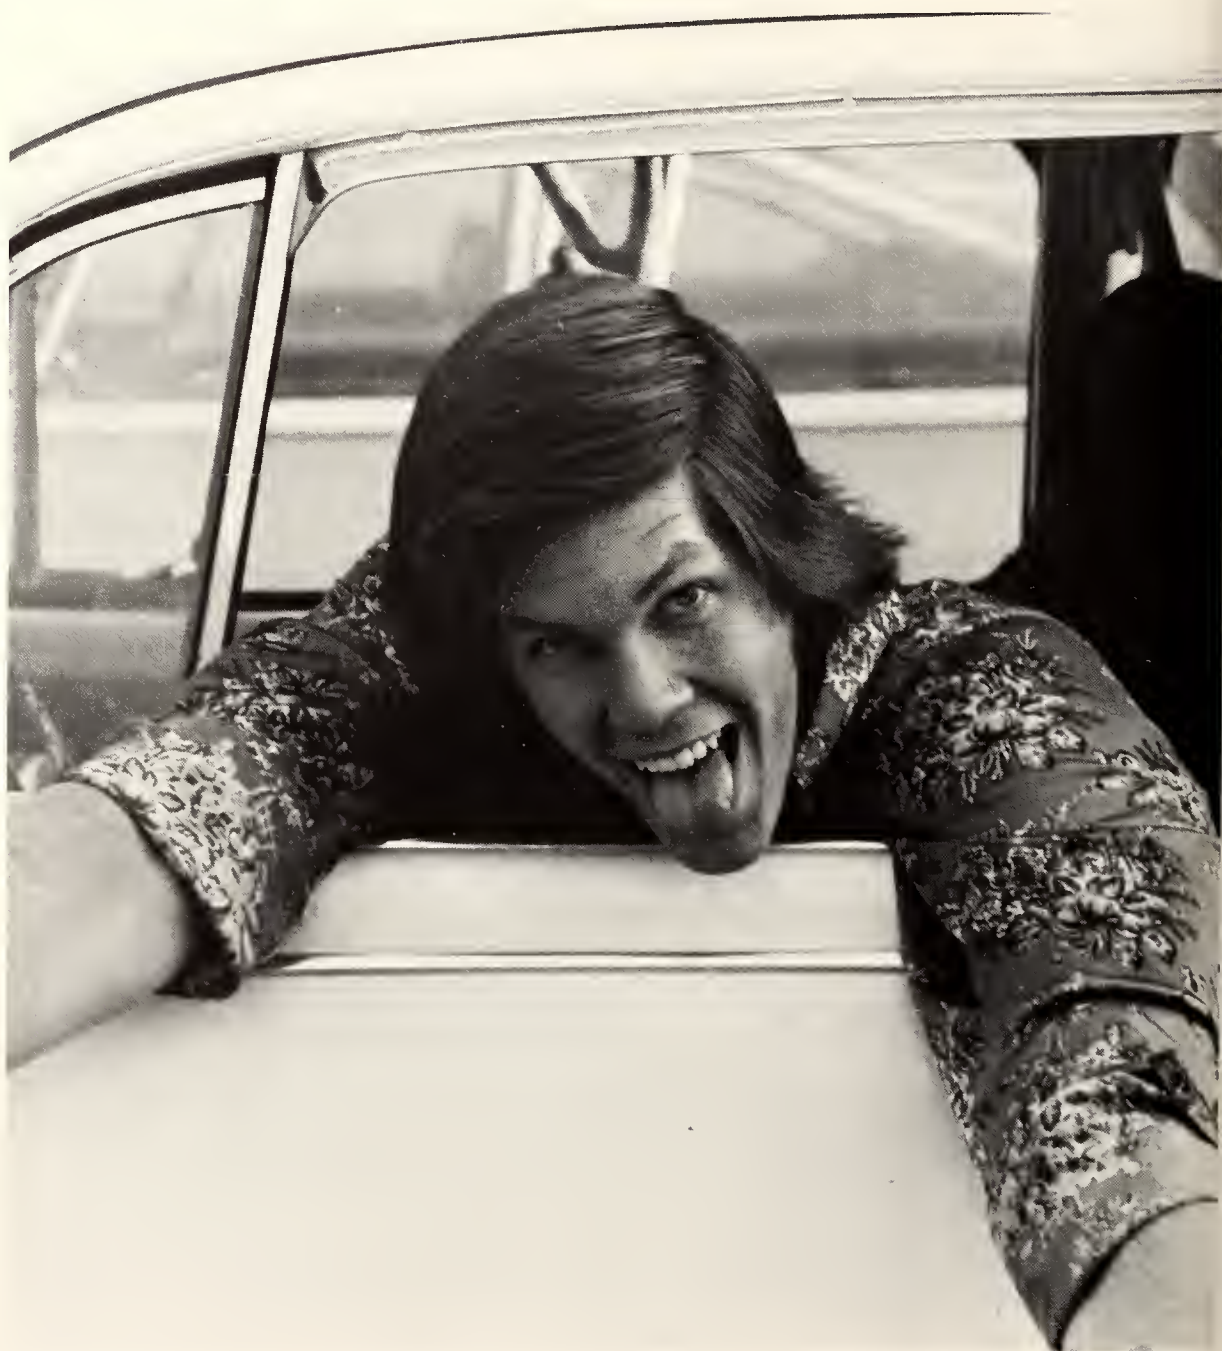

I like dreaming . . .

The scoreboard must be wrong, we won.

So much for step by step instructions. I switched to Boyer . . .

and please don't spill any punch, Vodka ruins the carpet.

My cup runneth over . . .

This cafeteria never fails to amaze me.

Another Saturday night at the ballgame.

Mary says to me. She says . . .

I wonder if Clyde the camel started his kicks this way.

You must have gotten this recipe from Circle K.

Just wait till he gets to the mouse trap.

Hinds Junior Quacklty party.

Snow

It had been a long time since it had snowed in Mississippi and the surprise of the people to the weather was no more evident than on the Hinds campus. To be truthful, about everyone went crazy for a day and really enjoyed themselves.

Students on campus braved the high winds and freezing temperatures to get out and throw snowballs, slide down hills on cardboard and cafeteria trays, and make the traditional snowmen.

Editors' Message

When I took this job as Co-Editor I knew what I was getting into. Anyone who has held a position such as this knows it's hard work. Being a Co-Editor of a college yearbook is an honor, but I feel more like I took a job nobody else wanted.

Through the bloodshot eyes, headaches, freezing weather, lost negatives and a dwindling staff of nine, we finally produced the 1977 EAGLE.

It is an attempt to capture cherished moments and memories. I hope you will enjoy this yearbook now and that later it brings fond memories of your life at Hinds.

To the staff THANKS, I really appreciated each and every one of you. To the photographers . . . I know I yelled a lot but I really appreciated everything ya'll did do. To Bob Hodges, our advisor thanks a lot for all your smiles and reassuring pats on the shoulder when everything would fall through. Your criticism was greatly appreciated.

Now very special thanks to my Co-Editor for everything. During all the final deadlines I think both of us learned a lot, about each other and respecting others feelings. I think a great friendship has been established. At least this yearbook was good for something.

I hope that each of you will appreciate the efforts exerted and the time spent in trying to make this EAGLE the best yet.

Maudie Hanks

Life — full of many trials and burdens. Why did one of mine have to be the yearbook co-editorship at H.J.C.? One that lasts for nearly six months and takes up most of your spare, studying, and sleeping time. One that makes you mean, tired, and ready to end it all by taking a few more sleeping pills than the bottle recommends.

Life — full of many good times that soon make you forget the bad. I'm glad one of mine was the 1977 EAGLE. One that allows a person to gain a few more good friends. One that will have special place in my heart for as long as I live.

I have not always been able to say in words how much I appreciate someone's making my life a little more happier and meaningful. I simply say thank you and may God bless you to my advisor Bob Hodges, the three photographers, and the small, but hard working staff. I wish all of you the best of luck and happiness throughout the rest of your lives.

I owe a great deal of thanks to my Co-Editor for her great friendship and support throughout this long ordeal. I am sure that without her always being there, that this yearbook would not have been finished.

Maybe we have not captured on all these pages, all the memories that you have encountered here at Hinds, but I hope that in the years to come we will have helped you to remember some of them.

In closing, I thank God for making this yearbook a success. With faith in Him, no goal is too hard to reach.
